Dear Cherilyn,

I hope this email finds you well. I'm writing to invite you to participate in the 5th annual American Foreign Policy Council (AFPC) delegation to China for leading policy experts. You were recommended by Leisel Bogan to join our August 2015 delegation.

The eight-person delegation will engage in a series of meetings and candid discussions with Chinese officials and scholars on a wide range of bilateral strategic and national security issues. The delegation will depart the U.S. on a Saturday and return on Saturday during the month of August (the dates are not yet fixed but we are targeting 8/4-8/11). Normal food, transportation and lodging expenses will be covered. The main meetings will be held in Beijing, but we will also spend time in a second province and meet with officials there. The composition of our delegation will be a mix of Congressional staffers, representatives from think tanks/members of FFDRCs, and individuals in the private sector.

AFPC CHINA DELEGATIONS

AFPC has been organizing annual, senior-level delegations to China for over two decades. Within the last few years delegations have included a former Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, a former National Security Advisor, five former Under Secretaries of State and Defense. This mid-career level trip is a relatively new initiative, focused on promoting exchanges between rising policy experts from both countries, will provide us an opportunity to interact with officials in the Chinese government, the Party, the think-tank community, academia, and possibly the military. Previous mid-career delegations have been led by Manisha Singh, Daniel Hartnett/Jeff Smith, Lyle Morris, and Ilan Berman.

Within the last few years delegations have included a former Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, a former National Security Advisor, five former Under Secretaries of State and Defense. This mid-career level trip is a relatively new initiative, focused on promoting exchanges between rising policy experts from both countries, will provide us an opportunity to interact with officials in the Chinese government, the Party, the think-tank community, academia, and possibly the military. Previous mid-career delegations have been led by Manisha Singh, Daniel Hartnett/Jeff Smith, Lyle Morris, and Ilan Berman.

Office of U.S. Senator Ted Cruz

Dear Michael,

I hope this email finds you well. I'm writing to invite you to participate in the 5th annual American Foreign Policy Council (AFPC) delegation to China for leading policy experts. You were recommended by Samantha Leahy and Joshua Eisenman to join our August 2018 delegation.

The eight-person delegation will engage in a series of meetings and candid discussions with Chinese officials and scholars on a wide range of bilateral strategic and national security issues. The delegation will depart the U.S. on a Saturday and return on Saturday during the month of August (the dates are not yet fixed but we are targeting 8/4-8/11). Normal food, transportation and lodging expenses will be covered. The main meetings will be held in Beijing, but we will also spend time in a second province and meet with officials there. The composition of our delegation will be a mix of Congressional staffers, representatives from think tanks/members of FFDRCs, and individuals in the private sector.
